FEDERAL BUREAU OF PRISONS

TO: (Name and Title of Staff Member) Ms. Veltri (Psychologist)	DATE: 11-17-2007
FROM: Hernandez-Rodriguez, Jose	REGISTER NO.: 16088-069
WORK ASSIGNMENT: Paint Department	UNIT: Unit 2

SUBJECT: (Briefly state your question or concern and the solution you are requesting. Continue on back, if necessary. Your failure to be specific may result in no action being taken. If necessary, you will be interviewed in order to successfully respond to your request.)

I have recently been informed by Mr. Galan that I am not eligible for early release pursuant to 18 USC §3621. He explained to me that it was due to a prior conviction that happened over 25 years ago, that I received only probation for. I am not satisfied with this reasoning, and would like for you (Ms. Veltri), to explain the reason why I'm not eligible for the year to me in writing. It is my understanding that; "inmates who have prior felony or misdemeanor convictions for homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, or child sexual abuse offenses" are the only ones not eligible for the year off, and my prior conviction does not fall under any of these categories. WHEREFORE, I respectfully request that you explain to me writing as to the reason why I am not eligible for the one year off pursuant to 18 USC §3621.

(Do not write below this line)

DISPOSITION:

Mr Galan is correct. Your conviction for "Attempted Murder" does disqualify you from a sentence reduction. The wording of Policy may not specify your conviction, but your conviction is clearly violent. If you feel this determination is in error, you may file an administrative remedy.
